

The Great American Retirement Crisis

The median total household retirement savings across all workers is approximately $50,000.

Nearly half of millennials (43%) say they fear outliving their savings and investments.

$1.9M

The average amount individuals believe they need to have saved for retirement.

An Overlooked Benefit

87% of job seekers say a 401(k) is a “must-have” benefit. And, nearly 40 million working Americans don’t have one.

Health Impact

44% of individuals claim they are stressed about saving for retirement. An upward trend from 38% in 2019.

Work Until You Die

55% of workers plan to work into retirement, 35% of those are concerned about their limited retirement savings. 14% plan to rely on working in retirement as their primary source of income.

Top Barriers to Offering a Retirement Plan

Contact SaveDay for more information about setting up a no-cost 401(k) plan.